A trip I will never forget

Uncle Sam lives in Tai O. He invited us over to celebrate Christmas. Since I have always wanted to join the Christmas event, I was very excited.

The most exciting event was going to Tai O Promenade. It took place at noon. We rode bicycles on the promenade. I accidentally fell down while I was riding a bicycle. Uncle Sam immediately came over and helped me! We went to enjoy the scenery after we finished cycling. The air there was very fresh and the sea view was particularly beautiful !

I had a great time today. I enjoyed cycling and admired the scenery. I hope I can play with Uncle Sam next time
