

Poor Little Dog

(4D Michael Chik)

Last Sunday, I saw a dog in the street. She was scared and hungry because she strayed from her master. The dog was worried.

After that, the dog followed me because it felt hungry and the dog wanted to find the master. So, I bought some food for her and helped it find the master.

Then, the dog was worried because we could not find the dog's master, so I felt sorry for the dog.

After a few minutes, I took the dog to find the master. Finally, we could find the master. So the dog was happy. I was happy too. I think helping others is joyful.
