

Shopping for Mum's Birthday

Ann and Ben looked at the calendar. It's mum's birthday. "Let's prepare a birthday party and buy a birthday present for mum," said Ann. Let's buy a birthday cake and make a birthday card," said Ben. They were excited.

Ann and Tom went to a clothes shop. "Oh no! We don't have enough money. Mum's dress is too expensive," said Tom. "What if we buy a cheaper dress? Less than seventy dollars?" said Ann.

They bought another dress and gave it to mum. "Mum, this dress looks good on you and we bought a birthday cake and some candles for you, too," said Ann. Mum was happy.
