

Water Leakage

By Chan Man Chun (6A)

Yesterday was my mum's birthday. We stayed at home in the morning. After lunch, my mum went shopping to buy some food to prepare for the dinner. I helped her with the housework. When I was washing the dishes in the kitchen, the telephone rang suddenly. My friend called me. We chatted about some TV games. I turned on the TV and played a TV game with my friend. I ate some snacks sitting on the sofa at the same time. My friend was humorous. I felt happy to chat with him. We talked for about three hours.

After chatting on the phone, I was so tired that I fell asleep on the sofa. I slept for long hours. Suddenly, I heard some sound and woke up. It was the sound of water. I saw some water flowing out of the kitchen sink. The water tap kept running because I forgot to turn it off. My mum returned home at that time. She was angry and said, 'Why is there so much water on the floor?' She scolded me after knowing the reason. From this incident, I have learned not to be absent-minded.
